Scouts Xmas Tree Sale Starts Dec. 11

Boy Scouts of Troop 375 will be selling Christmas trees again this Yuletide in the hope of topping their last year's record of more than 1000 trees sold. All profits are used to assist in the maintenance of Troop 375 and Cub Pack 381.

The lot will be the front yard of their Scoutmaster, William Spargur, at 57 e. Sierra Madre

The tree sale, beginning Sat-urday, Dec. 11, will last until Dec. 23. During that period fresh trees will be brought in at least every other day from their iced packing at the wholesaler's in Los Angeles.

As their share in the enterprise, Cubs of Pack 381 are now selling tickets at $1 apiece which may be applied toward the purchase of the Scouts' Christmas trees.

The troop, sponsored by the Bethany Church, will not con-duct its sale on Sundays, according to Dean Johnson of the troop committeeman.

Friends of Library To Show Free Movie

A motion picture show for Sierra Madre's younger set and parents will be shown, free of charge, at City School auditorium Dec. 10 by the Friends of the Library, according to an announcement by the group's president, Mrs. John E. Conzel-"The Magic Horse," the picture that will begin at 7:30, was voted second winner at the Cannes International Film festival several years ago, taking second pdace only to the film voted best of the year, "From Here to Eternity," Mrs. Conzel-

San Gabriel Symphony Concert Sunday, Dec. 5

A jungle of tigers, crocodiles, and monkeys will come musically alive on the stage of the Monrovia-Duarte high school auditorium Sunday, Dec. 5, at 3 p.m. when the San Gabriel Valley Symphony orchestra with Harold Scott conducting performs Miklos Rozsa's "The Jungle Book." Cameron Mitchell will be the narrator.

The concert also will include the Overture to Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," performed by the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony orchestra, an all youth orchestra of 75 members. The program will close with a chorus of 350 voices from the San Gabriel Valley schools and churches singing the Halleluiah Chorus from Handel's "Messiah."

The concert, and an art exhibit in the foyer of the high school, are free of charge.

One Cop's Cap Costs Another Cop's Cast

A missing police cap from a prowl car driven by Officer A. E. Mazzuca was the indirect cause of a broken ankle suffered by Officer Bill Mackie last Thursday evening.

Believing that the theft of the cap might have been a juvenile's prank while the police car was parked in front of the station, Officer Mackie climbed atop the roof of the McKibben Furniture store to see if the cap might have been thrown there. His ankle, broken during his descent from the roof, was treated for fracture at the Sierra Madre Medical Center.

The cap is still missing, and Mackie wishes the same to the cast on his ankle.

Early Xmas Mailing Is Asked by P.O.

your Christmas mail reaches its destination on time and in good condition, here are a few suggestions issued this week by Assistant Postmaster Arthur and Midwestern states, Mr. Embree states that packages should be in the mail not later than Dec. 10. Mailing to Western states, including California, should be done by Dec. 15.

Assistant Postmaster says that postal authorities recommend the use of first class mail for Christmas cards as they will be forwarded if not deliverable or will be returned to the sender if the address is written clearly on the cover of the envelope.

Cards sent with only 2c stamps are not forwardable and if they are undeliverable they are destroyed by the post office. Adding the extra 1c gives your card every chance being received and also saves postal employes the unhappy work of destroying

Mr. Embree also suggests that cards be put in bundles marked local and out of town, using facing slips furnished by the post office. A supply of facing slips will be supplied by your letter carrier, or you may obtain them from the office. An additional crew of workers will be ready to receive your Christmas mailing, address it properly and mail it early so that both sender and receiver will be happy, Mr. Embree says.

Fire Dept. to Solicit Funds

Asks Your Help for Children and the Sick

Members of the fire department are taking the responsibility of collecting funds in this area for the Muscular Dys. trophy Drive, according to Fire Chief James C. Heasley.

Because the campaign occurs in the same period that funds are being collected for the Fire Fighters' Christmas Eve Party Sierra Madre children, the firemen here have set up a locked box at the police department for the muscular dystrophy donations.

Contributions to the latter may be mailed to the police department or given to individual firemen when calls are made house-to-house on behalf of the community Christmas Eve project.

Funeral Rites Last Sat. for Helen Elliott

Funeral services for Miss Helen Homerick Elliott of 57 W. Grandview, who died Nov. 24 in Pasadena, were conducted Saturday morning at the Episcopal church of the Ascension with the Rev. Harley G. Smith, Jr., officiating.

Miss Elliott was one of the first teachers at the Church of the Ascension Day school which was first organized here in 1947. She also was a third order member in the Order of St. Anne's, an Episcopal sister-

Hotel to Open New Restaurant Soon

The new restaurant to be opened in the Sierra Madre Hotel will be ready for the public on, or about, Dec. 20, according to Mrs. Helen R. Keating, owner of the hotel.

With accommodations for 60 people the restaurant, containing a coffee shop and possibly a cocktail bar, will serve food six days a week from 7 a.m. until 9:30 p.m.

As for the possibility of bar service a discussion of the town's reaction to this matter has been set for a public hearing tomorrow in City Hall at 10 a.m. If the hall is unable to accommodate the number of persons attending the hearing, the meeting will be adjourned the auditorium of City

SANTA CLAUS MAY

So far as the children of town are concerned they won't care if Santa goes in for double-parking, considering that he will have small gifts for all the youngsters who meet him in the square from 2 until 4 o'clock in the afternoons and from 7 to 9 o'clock around town, beginning Monday, Dec. 13.

Almost 300 Christmas tree lights (count 'em) will shine from the pepper tree in the square and the stores will be open in the evenings until 9 o'clock starting Friday, Dec. 10. The general atmosphere will be such that not even the most procrastinating Christmas card buyer can longer ignore the approach of Yuletide.

Rumor has it that the Santa Claus in the Square will be known to some as Andy Church, but the kiddies are advised to pay no attention to lumors. With his suit designed by the Western Costume Com-

DEC. 15 NATIONAL OBSERVANCE DAY IN ATTEMPT TO AVOID TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

VFW to Open New $20,000 Building City and State Officials to Attend Dedication Tuesday Completion of the new VFW Post Home, built at a cost of $20,000 by Sierra Madre's Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be celebrated by a formal dedication Tuesday, Dec. 7, beginning at 8 p.m. The new structure containing four rooms that include a large combined auditorium and dining room, is located at 40 E. Montecito across from the present Post 3208.

Daniel D'Arcy Tells Kiwanis 'Saucer Story'

Flying saucers may or may not be here to stay, and Daniel L. D'Arcy, Sierra Madre optometrist whose glasses never fool him, has never seen any, but as the principal speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday he told of his visit recently with people on the desert north of Joshua Tree who claim that visitors from outer space are practically old pals of theirs.

Of the 27 members and five visitors who attended the luncheon, all agreed that D'. Arcy, while not making fun of anyone in particular, had given an "humorous talk." Although he didn't bring home any pictures of the much talked about flying disks, he told of those at Giant Rock north of Joshua Tree who have pictures supposedly taken of space ships and reports of same which they will be glad to send to anyone for a nominal fee or almost any voluntary contribution.

Gilbert Ross, Azusa Kiwanian who is the out-going lieuten ant governor,, introduced Rex Harbert of Monrovia who is the lieutenant governor elect to be installed at the Kiwanis dinner which will be held for that occasion at the Monrovia Woman's Club tonight.

Other visitors at the Tuesday uncheon, all Kiwanians, were Virgil White of Pasadena. George Shirk of Altadena, and Frank Roe, Monrovia.

Thanksgiving In City Park

Approximately 250 people attended the Union Thanksgiving Services in City Park last Thursday, according to the Rev. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Church of Our Redeemer, Methodist, who gave one of the principal addresses. His sermon, "Time to March," told of physical frontiers that have disappeared since the landing of the Pilgrims and the need for men to keep moving forward toward spiritual horizons, the only frontiers that remain.

The Rev. Donald H. Ostrand er, member of the Ministerial Association of Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch, and chairman of the Planning Committee for the Thanksgiving ser vice, expressed gratitude the response to the special of-fering, proceeds of which are used to send food to hungry people throughout the world.

The offering totaled $75.79 which will supply $1,515.80 worth of food to those in need. This is made possible through the U.S. Government surplus food distribution which draws upon a supply of 500 million pounds of food stocks valued wholesale at 150 million dollars, Rev. Smith says. Because the supply costs the government $700,000 per day in storage it is made available for shipment through the Church World Service by an arrangement whereby $20 worth of food is supplied for every $1 paid to cover distribution cost.

Library Board to Meet At Pritchard Home

The regular monthly meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Sierra Madre Public Library held on the first Tuesday of the month will meet during the period of the building emergency at the residence of the Board's secretary, Miss Martha Pritchard, 121 E. Invitations to the dedication have been sent to Mayor Charles Louk, city officials, business men, leaders of local organizations and to VFW state officials including Anthony R. Nagy, California department commander, Marshall Rooks, sixth district commander, and Byron Gentry, junior vice commander of California VFW. Among the VFW Auxiliary officials invited are Mrs. Mary McFall, president of California Women's Auxiliary VFW, and Hazel Nass, sixth district president of the Auxiliary.

The invocation will be given by Dr. Charles W. Steckel and the benediction by the Rev. Donald H. Ostrander. Other speakers will be Mayor Louk, Lee Shippey, newspaper col-umnist, and Al Morgan representing the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce.

Post 3208, installed in Sierra Madre Feb. 13, 1935, later was changed in name to become the Harry L. Embree Post 3208 in honor of the first member of the Post to lose his life in combat. The Auxiliary of the Post was installed Nov. 4, 1947 and has been one of Sierra Madre's most active women's organiza-

The Post is dedicated to the welfare of any comrade or comrade's widow and orphans in need of assistance; to the support of all local civic efforts that are considered for the good of the community; and to the aiding and comforting of comrades who are hospitalized.

One of the Post's distinguished members is Louis Van Iersel, veteran of two world wars whose many decorations include the Congressional Medal of Honor.

First commander of Post 3208 was Dr. Charles Herbert and president of the Auxiliary was Mrs. James Heasley, Jr. present commander William "Bud" Marsh and the Auxiliary's president is now Mrs. Bernice Purcell.

Among the many who have assisted in arrangements for the dedication are Ralph Burns, Manuel de la Torre, Loren Smith, Arnold Rogstad, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Bernice Purcell, Mrs. James Heasley, Jr., and Harry H. Holland.

Contractor for the new Post building, begun last July, was Carl Griffin and Sons. The lot on which it stands is 60 by 190

They didn't know it meant merely to disapprove or reprove, and carried no other punishment nor loss of privileges.

A Congressional inquiry is actually a court, without the restraints of court procedure. If you or I would ignore its summons to testify we would be liable to trial and imprisonment. But Senators and Representatives have special privileges. A trial judge, in pronouncing sentence after conviction, might use harsh language to us. But if, while the trial was in progress and no verdict had been reached, he

The first time we saw Doc and Paul they were playing a noisy game of gin rummy in the bar of the Santa Marta Hotel in Southern Spain. The second time, they were in the same bar throwing dice with the proprietor to see who would for the drinks. And the third time they were sitting in the patio drinking beer before breakfast.

Naturally, then, we were a little concerned when Risty announced one morning that he was in a hurry to keep a date with some new friends-Doc and Paul. "We're going to walk up the beach and look for shells," he explained. "And Doc is going to take his camera 'cause maybe we'll see a whale!" His eyes sparkled and my quick refusal died on my lips. After all, how much beer or gin or whatever can you drink walking up a beach looking for shells and taking pictures of whales? So we let him go. And when they brought him back they stayed to visit a bit -two recently divorced construction men who had been on a job in Saudi Arabia and were dead set on only one thing-getting away from it all. Paul, thin and quiet, said before they left, "He's a nice little guy. Hope you'll let him spend some time with us."

'Im sure that I looked uncertain because Doc laughed, a rolling laugh that started somewhere deep inside his enormous body and finally filled the whole room. "You don't called us living miracles without brains or guts, or said we were unfit to wear the uniform of our country, that would be such evidence of prejudice as would call for a mistrial.

The attitude of the Watkins committee is that the chairman of an investigating committee is actually a judge, or is siting in judgment, and the dignity of the Senate is lowered when anyone in such a position uses intemperate and insulting language. If a resolution of censure is adopted it will in no way limit the investigations of anyone. It will only suggest that they be carried on with dignity.

Coming closer to home, Mr. Bill Bonelli also has ignored the summons of investigating committees - the grand juries of San Diego and Orange counties—up to the time this is written. I'm not discussing either of these cases, mind you. but I'll bet three of the four dollars I've got saved up for Christmas that Mr. Bonelli would like a guarantee of nothing worse than censure.

I would lots rather write of people and things in Sierra Madre than of anything in Washington or any other distant spot. But I never know what's going on here until I get the NEWS, and then it's too late to comment that week. I'm a typical Sierra Madrean— I hate to attend meetings, work on committees or accept any of the other responsibilities of good citizenship. I prefer to let George do it. But I'm surprised to learn that 600 of our citizens have expressed readiness to pay $5 a month for better television reception. It seems that TV sets are are like motor cars-modern Americans have to have 'em whether they need 'em or not. I'm such an old fogy I'm glad I don't own either, though often it's nice to borrow those of friends. It stuns me to learn that 600 families-maybe many more-are willing to pay an installation charge plus $5 a month so they can get at least seven stations instead of only two or three.

But most of us do little thinking as we listen to radio or watch TV. We are swept ahead so fast that ideas we half-grasp are swept out of our minds and forgotten. Only the commercials, which repeat and repeat, are deeply impressed on us. Reading matter which we can lay down and ponder, or reread and learn by heart, still is the greatest educational medium and inspirer of creative thought.

SIERRA MADRE HARDWARE CO. 31 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. CU. 5-2331 have to worry, ma'am. We understand about little boys." His round face clouded over. "Got one myself-somewhere." Risty spent a great deal of time with them. He began drinking his milk with less fuss. Doc said it was good for him. He stopped hiding in the bushes and throwing stones to scare Bonzo, the dog. Paul said that was mean. He even almost stopped asking for a light in his room, because Doc and Paul never had lights when they went to sleep! Then it was time to think about his birthday would you like to do to celebrate, Risty?" we asked him one morning. "Want to go to Gibraltar?"

"Couldn't we have a party here instead? I don't want to go anywhere."

"Well - who would you in-

"Oh- Doc and Paul and the gardener, the one who works on our side, and Mrs. Gerlich and Bonzo . .

"I don't know about the gardener. There are rules about who can eat in the dining room, you know." Risty looked at me in disgust.

"If Bonzo can come in the din-cake and let it go at that" "O. K." he grumbled. "But I don't see why.' Doc and Paul came to the party in white shirts and ties! Risty shot a triumphant glance my way. "See, Mommie. I told you they had ties!"

I flushed and Doc roared and the party was underway. There was an erector set, a rear-view mirror for a bicycle, a fine many-bladed knife and a pair of hand-made Italian leather gloves-right one marked from Paul, left one from Doc. We ate and cut the cake and sang Happy Birthday in three-part harmony, Doc rumbling along in his rich bass.

And then we played games

Button, button—Hide and Go Seek-and Hide the Button, shouting "Cold, colder-oh, now you're getting warm" at each other until Risty decided it was about time he looked up the gardener to give him his cake. Besides, he wanted to try out his new rear-view mirror and his gloves. So he solemnly shook hands with his guests and took off only to run back a minute later to throw his arms first around Doc and then around Paul and say, "This is the best birthday I've ever

When he'd gone I said, "We want to thank you, too. There wouldn't have been much of a party without you."

Doc turned his big warm smile full on me. "You weren't sure at first, were you?" I shook my head, embarras-

"Oh, it's O. K. It must have looked kinda funny at that. But I'll tell you somethingdone more for us than all the other-"he jerked his thumb in the direction of the bar. "He's an all-right kid." I looked into Doc's earnest face. "He thinks you're great, too. Both of you," I added turn.

ing to Paul. They flushed like a couple of school boys and Paul said with a self-conscious laugh, "Be careful not to tell him the truth, won't you!" Doc slapped Paul's back affectionately. "What do you mean—don't tell him the truth. Could be the kid's right and we're wrong, couldn't it?" Paul shook his head, but I said firmly, "Yes, Doc. It certainly could be!"

The lowest traffic toll ever recorded over a holiday in the United States was that for the one-day Memorial Day holiday in 1951 when eighty-one people were killed in traffic accidents, according to the National Automobile Club.

St. Rita's Guild Luncheon Dec. 7th

St. Rita's Guild of St. Rita's Catholic Church will hold the regular monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday, Dec. 7, in the parish house at 11:45 a.m.

A film, "The Visitation", will be presented by Sister Sheila of the Order of Medical Missionaries of Mary. The missionary nuns are nurses and doctors who work with natives in Africa and have provided them with a hospital which serves many villages. Third grade mothers are in charge of the luncheon with Mrs. William Malone, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles White. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Francis Danielson at CUster 5-1705.

Her two daughters, Wendy, 11,, and Patricia, 8, were rescued from the burning home by Stanley E. Osborn, 19-yearold Pasadena City College student who saw the fire at 2 a.m. while driving to his home, 3200 Edgecliff Drive, in the Coronet Homes district. He and a neighbor, Donald J. Scott, 3880 Cartwright St., were unable to find Mrs. McWayne because flames and smoke prevented them from entering the living room where her body later was discovered by firemen.

Besides her two daughters, Mrs. McWayne is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Daggett of South Pasadena and a brother, Forrest Daggett, with whom she was a partner in the ownership of the Rowe Tool Co. in Glendale.

Mrs. McWayne was married in a society wedding in Pasadena to Robert L. McWayne in 1942, but obtained a divorce two years agc. McWayne, 40, is an export-import broker and is believed to reside in Honolulu at the present time.

A member of the Pasadena Assistance League, Mrs. Mc-Wayne also was active in Girl Scout organizations.

Now you Know!

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: My wife and I don't have enough valuable possessions to justify our buying the all-risk Personal Property Floater insurance some of our friends carry but I'd like to know if there is anything similar with more limited coverage and a lower pre-

ANSWER: There are several insurance policies such as you describe, among them the Personal Articles Floater which protects such things as golf equipment, cameras, jewelry and silver. See a good insur-ance agent to find out just what form best applies to vour situation.

Ruan-Sweeney Engagement Announced At Family Dinner Sunday, November 28

man Ryan, of Altadena announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Anne to Joseph Barnham Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stender Sweeney, 506 W. Grandview, at a family dinner last Sunday night at the Huntington-Sheraton Ship Room.

Each of the fourteen guests found a small scroll, reading "Peggy and Joe", attached to their place cards by a ribbon encircling sprays of lilies of the valley.

The bride-elect is a Westridge graduate and attended Marymount College and Mills College. She has served as alumnae representative for Southern California and also as Southern California student recommendation counselor.

Mr. Sweeney is attached to the U. S. Air Force and is now stationed in Manila and is attending the University of the Philippines. Before going into service he was studying at Loyola University. He is a gradudate of Pasadena City College where he was a Tyrian. He also received an associate of arts

Miss Ryan is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Joseph Haley of Seattle, Wash., and the late Dr. and Mrs. Albert Ryan of Du-

Dr. And Mrs. Philip Bruce Linville Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Dr. and Mrs. Philip Bruce in Edina, Mo. When this bank Linville, 595 Alta Vista, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversiary at a reception at the Hillcrest Restaurant with more than a hundred guests in attendance. The Linville's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McIntyre of Covina were the hosts at the happy affair. Included in the guests were another daughter, Mary Elizabeth Simpson, a son, Charles Bruce Linville, five grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

The large golden cake was decorated with small 50s on each individual piece. Gold and white mums were used in the floral decorations.

Dr. and Mrs. Linville were married Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, 1904, in La Junta, Colo. Dr. Linville is a life member of the Elks Lodge at La Junta, a life member of the Elks Honorary, a 32nd degree Mason, and a thirty-five year member of the American Legion. He practiced dentistry in La Junta and was a co-owner of Linville & Wilson, bankers, ciety will be meeting all day Tuesday, Dec. 7, beginning at 10:45 with Edward Bateman as the eleven o'clock speaker. Mr. Bateman is in Direct Ministry to the children of the Juvenile Court representing the Evangelical Churches.

While this work is sponsored by the Evangelical Churches, it is an independent work of Faith. Mr. Bateman has been active in this capacity for over six years and in the past year alone has dealt personally with hundreds of cases. He deals personally with the individual case of each of the boys by visiting them while they are in detention and appearing with them when they go to court. He continues to counsel with them after they are sent home or to another institution.

There will be a short business session at 1:15 followed by the afternoon speaker at 1:30. Mr. Robert Bowman of the Far East Broadcasting Company will be bringing the latest news of conditions in the Philippines and South East Asia and will be showing pictures of actual broadcasting taken in Christian Radio City, Manila, to the countries of Asia behind the Iron Curtain. There will be pictures of the representatives of the Far East Broadcasting Company who are now recordprograms by National Christians in the languages and dialects of their respective countries and other scenes of current world interest. Mr. Bowman is the vice-president of F.E.B.C. in Manila and has just returned from the Philippines where he has been serving as Director of the 8 International Short Wave Broadcasting stations operated by F.E.

More Than $50,000 Pledged For Bethany Building Program

The first significant step in the current Building Program at Bethany Church was taken at the Dedication Service held in the church last Wednesday night. In a meeting described by many as one of the most unusual ever held in the 30year history of the church, the cash conations and pledges for the expansion program were recorded.

Official action on the church building program was taken on April 1st, 1954. Wednesday night it was disclosed that nearly $16,000 in cash has been given toward the fund since that time.

Pledges for a three-year period were totaled, and the minimum amount pledged was slightly more than $50,000. Dr. Schaper pointed out that although this is not the entire amount needed, it is such an overwhelming expression of cooperation and interest that the finance committee will be well able to make plans and fur-ther announcements. Additional assistance will be necessary, but great confidence has been expressed in the expected interest and cooperation of other friends of Bethany Church in and around Sierra Madre.

Dr. Schaper will begin a series of Christmas messages this coming Sunday morning. The choir will be singing and Earle Anderson will be the guest soloist. Sunday night will be Youth Night, and the Campus Department will be in charge of the preliminary part of the service. The Youth Choir under direction of Harry Sweet will be

BETHANY CAMPUS C. E. GOES ON

Officers of the Bethany Campus Christian Endeavor went on a retreat to Maag's Cabin at Barton Flats for the purpose of planning the Christian En-deavor program for the coming six months.

WEEKEND RETREAT

Those attending the retreat were: Dub and Evelyn Moore, sponsors of the organization; Ronnie and Joyce Bick, pro-gram chairmen; LeRoy Maag, president; Bud Webster and Lydia Richter, vice-presidents; Marlene Vangen, secretary; Ernie Richter, missionary chairman; Lynda Ower and Ronnie Cheroske, lookout chairman; Janice Jonassen, social chairman. Marlyn Hailey was along as a guest.

The Christian Endeavor meetings are held at 6:15 p.m. and the subject for Sunday, Dec. 5, will be entitled, "Who's Kidding Who?" with Mrs. Robert Schaper speaking.

"Anyone in the 11th grade through the age of 26 is invited to come to the Campus C. E. The theme for the next six months will be "Consider

Billie Burke Heads Cast at Playhouse

Play Reviewed By E. N. Voorhees

The twittery-fluttery Miss Billie Burke continues to hold her audiences in thraldom, whether in laughter or near to tears. Indeed it is she and the excellent casting of nearly all the other parts in "Mother was a Bachelor," rather than the play itself, to which this reviewer must pay tribute for an enjoyable two hours at the Pasadena Playhouse watching the fifteen characters unfold one more version of the well-worn but perennially appealing Cinderella plot.

It is "on the screened summer living porch" of the Pierce family in a small Town in around the year 1900, that Aunt Ellen (Miss Burke), the spinster sister of the deceased Mrs. Pierce, acts the cheery and motherly household drudge for the other six members of the family, all good natured and thoroughly selfish where Aunt Ellen is concerned. It is Charleen, "Charlie," a motherless and precocious child of ten, next door, who sees all, hears all, and knows all, plays the good fairy by attaching herself to Aunt Ellen, and not only produces the magic wand and glass slipper but also their sequel. Young Susan Seaforth makes

"Charlie" as convincing and at-tractive as any Quiz Kid ever could be, and this fine little actress could be more so by speaking her oracular and well-rounded speeches more

Frank Cady is almost painfully convincing as George Pierce, the show-off head of the house; Florence Thompson plays with touches of humor his tippling mother, full of imagined ailments; Don Sullivan as his "wise-guy" brother is true to type; Dona Lowe as the teen-age daughter Jennifer never allows her trying role to descend to melodrama; Gerry Nibley and Reba

40th Anniversary For H. G. Maurers

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maurer, 175 N. Mt. Trail, marked their fortieth wedding anniversary with a party at their Mint Can-

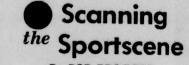

Among those in attendance were two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Maurer and their daughter. Debra, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maurer and their children, Linda and Frederick, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rice of Glendale.

The Maurers were married Nov. 28, 1914 in Detroit, Mich., and came to California in 1924. They have made their home in Sierra Madre for the past nine years. They have nine grandchildren and two great-grand Waters portray the two Pierce "small fry" as twin bundles of noisy impertinence.

Alan Smith scintillates in both comedy and farce as Harlan, Jennifer's first and neartragic "date," and Alex Petrie as his father upholds well except for one brief moment of male preening - the somewhat stuffy dignity traditionally associated with bankers. Dave Showalter as Christopher Joyce is a mature and complely adequate Prince Charming in this modernized fable. his three or four lines making possible an ideal and quick

The staging is impressive, the direction of acting and tempo make for naturalness; much of the time, however, the stage is too noisy for the quieter actors to be properly heard, and the off stage band music should, in the opinion of this reviewer, be toned down so that little "Charlie's" recitation of the Declaration of Independence can be heard in that last row of seats against the wall. And what became of the "important business matter that was left unrevealed? The play was adapted by Irving W. Phillip of Beverly Hills from a Saturday Evening Post story by Myne Lockwood, and will continue at the Playhouse through December 11.

Oh, that lucky Muir eleven!
But just a minute. Why were they so lucky as some fans put it? Were they lucky when they recovered a Don Hall fum-ble on the 21 yard line with just five minutes gone in the first quarter and scored?

The answer is no. No that wasn't luck, according to Muir coach Don Hunt. Mr. Hunt explained in the next morning papers that they had been working on this play to make Don Hall fumble when he hands off to Henry Aguilar who then passes to Hammamoto. This shows how well the Pasadenans were scouted. Hunt knew almost as much about the Bulldogs as did their coach Ed Nyden.

In no way at all was Muir lucky in winning that football game. They played their hearts out and played great. Muir went all out in bringing about spirit for this game. They had kids going all over Pasadena selling tickets for the Turkey Tussle, and they even put out a pre-game newspaper that did nothing but build up spirit. Take a rest you students of Muir; you did a, good job.

Well, folks, this Saturday you are going to watch a real football game. The Irish of

Notre Dame are battling the great SMU Mustangs in the final game of the year excluding Bowl games New Year's

The game is going to be televised as the game of the week. The "titanic team" of Notre Dame, who defeated USC last Saturday 23-17, is going to put everything into this one. If they win they end up the season with a 9-1 mark which will probably put them fourth in the national ranking.

SMU is going to be harder to beat than USC. The Mustangs defeated TCU last week 21-6, and TCU downed USC earlier this season. Gosh darn, but this is going to be a tough one.

Shaky prediction . . . Notre Dame 20 SMU 14,
